

All sentences have a verb. A verb is a doing word that tells us what the subject in a sentence is doing or what is happening. Verbs often end in 'ing'.

Add 'ing' to the end of these verbs to complete the sentences correctly.

1. Jo likes help..... her mum to bake the cakes.
2. The angry dog is bark..... at the postman.
3. Every weekend I go walk..... in the hills with my brother.

Make up interesting sentences of your own using each of these verbs:

jumping

drinking talking

If the verb ends in 'e' we usually drop the 'e' and add 'ing'.
For example: hope; hoping.

Use the rule above to add ing to the end of these verbs to spell them correctly.

dance take use

write make have

Make up sentences of your own using two of these verbs with the 'ing' ending:

Answers

1. Jo likes helping her mum to bake the cakes.
2. The angry dog is barking at the postman.
3. Every weekend I go walking in the hills with my brother.

dance dancing take taking use using write writing make making have having