Good Luck!

We would like to wish Miss Taylor the very best as she commences her maternity leave and Mr Cooper takes the helm in Class 5. We look forward to hearing baby news in the very near future and wish her and her partner every happiness.

Farewell

Mrs Charlton was sent off in traditional Melbourne style thanks to Mr Richardson who penned a personalised version of Abba's Mamma Mia. This was sung by the whole school last week. Mrs Charlton was overwhelmed by the kind words and gifts that she received from our parents and pupils - thanking her for her service to Melbourne and wishing her well for the future. Pupils were pleased to welcome her back to M&M again on Wednesday. Mrs Charlton kindly left a sparrow terrace which will be situated in the school grounds for the pupils to enjoy for years to come.

World Book Day

Yesterday school was flurry with characters from our favourite books. Pupils enjoyed sharing their favourite stories in class. We are pleased to announce that a child in Class 2 has found the first golden ticket in our new library and having successfully answered the questions relating to his book was awarded his book voucher today. There are 5 further tickets for the pupils to find. As they continue their reading journey pupils may find a reward along the way

Red Nose Day

Red Nose Day this year is Friday 15th March. All money raised will go directly to comic relief. In order to raise funds pupils are welcome to come in their own clothes (no theme) with a suggested donation of £1. Pupils can also buy red noses via the main office for £1.25. In addition we shall be hosting a bake sale would very much appreciate any donations of baked goods to sell on the day. If you are donating goods baked from home, please remember to clearly label your tub with ingredients in order that we can safely accommodate children with allergies. Thank in advance for helping us support the wider community with such a worthwhile event. Please note that Miss Howe is putting together a range of fun activities for the pupils that day so there will be no Celebration Assembly on Friday afternoon.

Text re Celebration Assembly
