Care Imagine Believe Strive Achieve

24th May 2019

Wishing all of our families a restful and enjoyable half term break. We look forward to seeing you all back at school on Monday 3rd June.

Bag2 School

A big thank you to everyone that donated items for the bag2school collection this week. You donated a whopping 558kg which equates to £223.20 raised for the School. This is our biggest collection to date so thank you for your support.

Pupil Safety

The Main Street is often incredibly busy with cars at drop off and pick up times. Please can we urge parents to supervise small children at all times - particularly heading out of the main gates as there is no barrier preventing a child from running in to the road. Little ones can easily gather momentum at this point as the path slopes. Thank you for your attention in this safety matter.

Book fair

Thank you to all those who managed to visit the book fair - we raised nearly £40 for books for the school and Mrs Knight has been busy choosing some new books which will be in the library soon!

KS1 SATs.....done ✓

Well done to our Y2 pupils who have now completed their SATs. The children approached each day with positivity and determination. Whilst SATs are taken in Y2 and Y6 we would like to take this opportunity to recognise that they are end of Key Stage tests i.e. a team effort, a culmination of excellent teaching that takes place in every year group at our school. The whole team of teaching and support staff go the extra mile to bring out the best in all of our pupils. We are obligated to
